O	Play Simon Says.	Label items in your child's room or around the house.	Play a game of matching shapes.	Have your child tell a story with a puppet.	Read a book that shows different habitats and landforms.	Hide objects in plain sight and use words to help your child find them.	Let your child select a book to be read to.
O	Play rhymes with words ending in "at," "op," "ug," and "ip."	Read a story and have your child repeat words or sounds after you.	Have your child create a picture. Write what it depicts on the bottom of the page.	As you travel, point out signs and what they say.	Sing the Hokey Pokey with all the actions.	Sing the alphabet song while washing hands.	Create a story by cutting out pictures and pasting them to blank pages.
K	Have some "me time" and read your own book in front of your child.	Read a book about occupations and provide props to play different roles.	Visit the library and read a library book together.	Help your child create his or her own songs.	Have your child retell a story or event in sequence.	Read a story at bedtime.	Read the same book more than one time.

Do these activities with your child when he or she is 3-to-4 years old to help your child develop reading skills.
