

Massanutten Regional Library
New DVDs
November 14, 2012

- DVD 364.1 H 2004
Heir to an execution [videorecording]: a granddaughter's story / Blowback Productions; producers, Marc Levin, Ivy Meeropol, Sheila Nevins, Daphne Pinkerson; directed by Ivy Meeropol.
- DVD 379.2 L 2007
Little Rock Central [videorecording]: 50 years later / [presented by] HBO Documentary Films; Home Box Office; Downtown Community Television Center; directed, produced, and filmed by Brent Renaud, Craig Renaud.
In 1957, Little Rock Central became a symbol of the Civil Rights Movement. African-American students were not allowed into the building. Film examines the racial equality, education, and class at the high school today.
- DVD 567.9 D 2004
Dinosaur planet [videorecording] / Discovery Channel; Evergreen LLC; producer, John Copeland; director Pierre de Lespinois.
Provides a dinosaur's-eye view of survival in this violent primordial world. White Tip's journey: Follow the desperate trials of a velociraptor cut off from her pack in the desert. Pod's travels: A pyroraptor is swept away in a tidal wave and washes ashore on an island populated by much smaller dinosaurs.
- DVD DECE 2008
Deception [videorecording] / a R/E production in association with Seed Productions produced by Arnold Rifkin, John Palermo, Hugh Jackman, Robbie Brenner, David Bushell, Christopher Eberts; written by Mark Bomback; directed by Marcel Langenegger.
Jonathan McQuarry is an accountant who meets Wyatt Bose, a charismatic corporate lawyer. Bose introduces Jonathan to a decadent playground called The List, which is a mysterious sex club for Manhattan's executives. It's a world of 'intimacy without intricacy,' one of betrayal, treachery and murder. But in this new world, Jonathan soon becomes the prime suspect in a woman's disappearance and a multi-million dollar heist.
- DVD MAN 2003
The man who laughs [videorecording] / Universal; Carl Laemmle presents a Universal Super-Jewel; adaptation by J. Grubb Alexander; director, Paul Leni.
Gwynplaine is doomed to live life wearing a perpetual grin. Carved on his face because his father, Lord Clancharlie, had offended England's king. Gwynplaine grows up alongside the beautiful but blind Dea and they fall in love. Queen Anne, meanwhile, has ascended the throne and when she learns that the femme fatale, Duchess Josiana is in possession of the Lord's estates, she decrees that the Duchess must marry Gwynplaine, the rightful heir. Gwynplaine realizes that the duchess' attraction has legitimized his right to love Dea, renounces his title and follows his heart to the new World.
- DVD MIXE 2001
Mixed nuts [videorecording] / TriStar Pictures; screenplay, Nora Ephron, Delia Ephron; producers, Paul Junger Witt, Tony Thomas, Joseph Hartwick; director, Nora Ephron.
A wild and wacky comedy about oddball characters in Los Angeles at Christmastime, centered around a suicide hotline service.
- DVD QUIE 2005
The quiet American [videorecording] / Figaro Incorporated presents; written for the screen and directed by Joseph L. Mankiewicz.
Drama about the Indochinese war, 1946-1954, from an American journalist's experience.

DVD UPTO

2004

Uptown girls [videorecording] / Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Pictures presents a GreeneStreet Films production; produced by John Penotti, Fisher Stevens, Allison Jacobs; screenplay by Julia Dahl and Mo Ogradnik and Lisa Davidowitz; directed by Boaz Yakin.

Molly is the daughter of a deceased rock legend who is, for the first time in her life, forced to work after her manager steals all her inheritance. With help of her friend, Molly becomes the nanny of Ray, the precocious daughter of a busy music executive. She learns as much about being an adult from Ray, as she teaches Ray about being a child.

J DVD KIPP

2004

Kipper. Kipper helps out [videorecording] / a Grand Slamm Children's Film production for HIT Entertainment Plc.; Varga Studios; Varga producers, Jenó Vass, Andras Erkel; produced by Ginger Gibbons; director, Mike Stuart.

The visitor: When a gosling visits Kipper unexpectedly, Kipper experiences the joys and frustrations of parenthood. Pig's present: Kipper wants to give Pig the best birthday gift ever - a pet hamster. The butterfly: After chasing a butterfly around the park, Kipper captures it in a jar. The Bleepers: It's Bleepers from outer space! Pig's cousin: Pig and Kipper take Arnold to play in the park. The little ghost: It's a ghost - and it's afraid of Kipper!

J DVD KIPP

2004

Kipper. Puppy love [videorecording] / a Grand Slamm Children's Films production for HIT Entertainment Plc.; Varga Studios; producer, Jenó Vass; produced by Ginger Gibbons; director, Mike Stuart.

"Nothing ever happens": Kipper is excited to discover a magician's hat. "Tiger's torch": What better place to shine Tiger's new torch than on a campout. "Pig's shop": Kipper and Tiger visit Pig's sweet shop but have no money. "Cousins": Who's eating Kipper out of house and home? "The key": Mouse is jealous of Kipper's toy clockwork mouse, but discovers it can be a fun toy after all. "The missing tape mystery": Arnold's birthday gifts include a cassette player - but the the tape is missing.

J DVD KIPP

2003

Kipper. Pools, parks and picnics [videorecording].

Seven episodes of the children's television series "Kipper". Join the imaginative puppy, Kipper, and his friends Tiger, Jake, Pig and Arnold as they visit the swimming pool, the park and the nearby woods.

J DVD LOON

2003

Looney tunes premiere collection [videorecording] / Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc. presents a Warner Bros. Cartoon; writers, Michale Maltese ... [et al.]; director, Charles M. Jones.

Featuring some of the very earliest, ground-breaking on-screen appearances of many all-time Looney Tunes favorites, it's an unprecedented animation celebration for cartoon-lovers eager to re-live the heady, hilarious, golden age of Warner Bros. animation! Sparkling with one unforgettable, landmark cartoon classic after another, there's Bugs Bunny's monstrously merry encounter with the tennis-shoe clad creature. Wile E. Coyote and Roadrunner racing to cartoon immortality.

J DVD MAX

2012

Max & Ruby. Double pack! [videorecording] / Nickelodeon; Nick Jr. Productions; Nelvana produced in association with Treehouse.

Contains 24 episodes filled with the loving, laughing sibling rivalry between Ruby and her little brother Max.

J DVD VEGG

2003

VeggieTales. King George and the ducky [videorecording]: a lesson about selfishness / Big Idea Productions.

Unlike other kings, King George spends most of his time in the bath tub, because that is where his favorite toy is, a rubber ducky. But just one ducky isn't enough for King George; he wants them all. Discover what happens when the king decides that he is the most important person above all others. Learn that whether you are a king or a kid, God wants us all to think of others first.

J DVD WIMZ

2005

Wimzie's house. Growing up [videorecording] / Toddler TV; produced with the participation of Canada Television and Cable Production Fund - License Fee Program, Telefilm Canada - Equity Investment Program, Quebec Film and Television Tax Credit and the Canadian Film or Video Production Tax Credit and in association with the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, Societe Radio-Canada, Tele-Quebec and Maryland Public Television; Cinar Productions.

Wimzie's parents work full-time. Along with the other neighborhood children, she spends her days at a homecare center run by her 150-year-old grandmother, Yaya. Every day Wimzie and her friends laugh, play, sing and learn as they embark on adventure that teach them valuable lessons and skills to help them cope confidently with real-life situations.